

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

Bonnie Le Var
Corporate Angel Network
914-328-1313

bonnielevar@corpangelnetwork.org

Deborah Radman
CKPR
(212) 251-1208

DRadman@C-K.com

Cancer Patients Receive Support from: Chevron Global Aviation, NBAA, Safe Flight Instrument Corporation, and Business & Commercial Aviation Magazine

Corporate Angel Award Co-Sponsors Donate $28,000 to Corporate Angel Network

Atlanta, GA—September 25, 2007—Corporate Angel Network (CAN), the national public charity that arranges free flights to treatment for cancer patients by using empty seats on business aircraft, was presented a $28,000 check today in a ceremony held at Chevron Global Aviation's booth during National Business Aviation Association's 60th Annual Meeting & Convention in Atlanta GA.

Tom Henricks, President, McGraw Hill's AVIATION WEEK, presented the check for the net proceeds of the Corporate Angel Award program to Peter Fleiss, Corporate Angel Network's Executive Director. Corporate Angel Award co-sponsors: Ed Bolin, President & CEO, NBAA; Randall Greene, President & CEO, Safe Flight Instrument Corporation; and Keith Sawyer, General Manager, General Aviation, Chevron Global Aviation took part in the presentation, along with James Christensen, President, NetJets. NetJets is one of this years Corporate Angel Award recipients along with AIG, and Intel.

The Corporate Angel Award recognizes Corporate Angel Network (CAN) participating corporations and flight departments for their exceptional contributions to cancer patients. Each flight department is recognized with a full-page ad in Business & Commercial Aviation magazine and receives $2,500 worth of Chevron aviation fuel.

This award, initiated in 2001, recognizes the successful merger of business activity with social responsibility. Previous Corporate Angel Award winners include: Corning, Inc., American Home Products, International Products, Schering-Plough, Dow Chemical, Flight Options, Inc., The 401K Company, Verizon, The Ford Motor Company, Limited Brands, ConocoPhillips, PepsiCo, America Online, Inc., AT&T, Bristol-Myers Squibb, The Coca-Cola Company, ConAgra, Wachovia, Honeywell, Duke Energy, VF Corporation, YUM Brands, Altria, and Textron.

About Corporate Angel Network

Corporate Angel Network arranges free flights for cancer patients to treatment centers using the empty seats on business aircraft. Since its founding 25 years ago, CAN has grown to include 530 participating corporations, five paid staff, and a team of 50 part-time volunteers who work with patients, physicians, corporate flight departments, and leading treatment centers to coordinate medical travel needs of cancer patients with the scheduled flight activity of participating corporations. To date, CAN has arranged nearly 27,000 flights and currently provides more than 200 patient flights a month...2,500 a year. CAN has received numerous awards in recognition of its service to cancer patients, including The Volunteer Action Award, the highest volunteer award from the President of the United States. For more information please call CAN at (914) 328-1313 or visit www.CorpAngelNetwork.org.

Photo Caption: (L to R) Keith Sawyer, Ed Bolen, Tom Henricks, Peter Fleiss, Randall Greene, Jim Christensen.

###